What is a continent, and are there seven or five? Some continents are surrounded by water, but others have borders with each other that are often difficult to define. Did you know that the continents can move? How does this happen and what does it mean for the future of the continent you live on? Find out all about Earth's continents, how they are similar and how they differ, as well as the effect people have had on the landscapes where they live.

The "almosts" are ruining Abby's life! She's almost tall enough. She's almost a star student. She's almost first in line—and on and on it goes. So why even bother entering the science fair? The almosts will ruin it anyway. But what if Abby is wrong? Maybe the almosts can actually be a good thing . . .

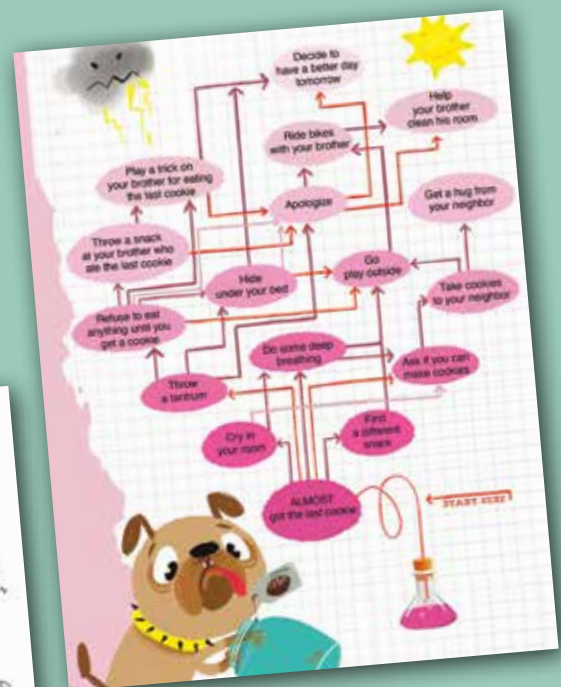

Feeling disappointment is a part of life, and Janet Sumner Johnson tackles that feeling with force in this inspirational picture book. In her signature kid-friendly text, Johnson highlights the importance of seeing positives in every situation and using a growth mindset to live your best life.

ARRP $16.99

FORMAT PAPERBACK, 144 PAGES, 228x152mm

An all-ages, adventure-comedy graphic novel, that has it all: humor, peril, and out-of-this-world archaeological adventures (oh, and ducks!). Billy Johnson, the son of two world-famous explorers (who mysteriously disappeared eight years ago) has big dreams. The teenager may be a part-time janitor now, but exploring is in his blood. He just needs one big discovery to prove to the Explorers League that he's worthy of the rank of Ace Explorer. Luckily, Billy has an ally in his best friend, Barrace. Not only is Barrace a college professor of linguistics, but he's also a duck!

While the other Vikings love to holler and howl and battle and brawl, Leif prefers spending time by himself atop the beautiful fjord. But when it's time for the Viking Games, everyone must participate. Will Leif let down his clan . . . or surprise them? Highlighting the value of nature and earthly wonders, best-selling author Laura Gehl teams up with illustrator Timothy Banks to remind readers to stay true to themselves and to look at things from a new perspective.

- full-colour illustrations
- themes of self-awareness
- discusses family traditions
- highlights the importance and beauty of nature and earthly wonders in a clever way

SERIES BIRD DETECTIVES

GENRE	CHILDREN'S NON-FICTION
AGE RANGE	MIDDLE TO UPPER PRIMARY
CURRICULUM	FORENSICS, BIOLOGY
IMPRINT	CAPSTONE - PRESS, SMITHSONIAN
ARRP	$29.99
FORMAT	HARDBACK, 32 PAGES, 254x203mm

Birds and planes don't always get along. What can we do to help? Enter the world of forensic ornithology in this investigative nonfiction title created in collaboration with Smithsonian's National Museum of Natural History, Division of Birds. Discover the fascinating work of leading ornithologists—"bird detectives" who use science and technology to solve bird strikes and other bird mysteries. They examine evidence from clues like feathers and snarge—pilot slang for what's left behind after a bird strike—and create solutions to save our feathered friends and protect people and planes in flight. Discover how the study of birds shapes our world, from inspiring aviation and airfield design to increasing safety in the skies. Full of photos, case studies, fun facts, and interactive elements, this STEM exploration reveals a fascinating field of science to kids.

- full-colour photography
- activities, resources and further reading
- inside look at forensic ornithology and its real-world applications
