GENRE	GEOGRAPHY, HISTORY, CIVICS
AGE RANGE	UPPER PRIMARY TO SECONDARY
IMPRINT	REDBACK PUBLISHING
ARRP	$19.99
FORMAT	PAPERBACK, 32 PAGES, 270x215mm

Australians mark National Sorry Day on 26 May each year. This special day is a time to reflect on how government wrongdoings have affected and continue to affect Australia's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and their cultures. It is also a time to consider what reconciliation means for the future of all Australians. Australians celebrate or commemorate a number of special days throughout the year. These special days give us the chance to reflect on the past, appreciate our lives, and look to the future together.

In seventeen-year-old Hannah Dresher's world, every dollar counts.

When Hannah comes home to find that her alcoholic mom is wasted, she's not surprised. But when she discovers that her younger brother, Seth, has disappeared with the overdue rent money, she worries they'll be evicted or taken away by social services. Hannah knows she can't rely on anyone but herself, so she has no choice but to chase down her brother. During her search she meets charming Eli, who offers to help her. But can Hannah set aside her pride and learn to trust him?

- this short novel is a high-interest, low-reading level book for teen readers who are building reading skills, want a quick read or say they don't like to read!
